ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter. For the reasons stated during sidebar discussions during the February 2, 2022 status conference, and for the reasons herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including April 11, 2022.

In response to the current conditions in the COVID-19 pandemic, the undersigned, as Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands, issued a general order concerning operations of the Court on January 31, 2022, suspending all jury trials through February 28, 2022.¹ The Court hereby fully incorporates the findings from the Court's Thirty-Third Operations Order as fully stated herein.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 890,000 lives in the United States (101 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). COVID-19 continues to present an unpredictable threat to public health and safety, as shown in the recent surge in COVID-19 cases both in the continental United States and the Virgin Islands. As such, the Court finds that extending the period within which Defendant Jackson may be tried under the Speedy Trial Act is necessary for the protection and well-being of the Defendant, the jury, the prosecutors, the witnesses, the Court's personnel, and the general public at large.

The premises considered, it is hereby
